FIFER'S FEARFUL FRENZY

Causes Him to Do Frightfully Fiendish Crimes.

SLAYS HIS LITTLE CHILD.

Seattle Gripman Also Takes the Life of a Sanitarium Woman Patient, Fatally Wounds Wife, Seriously Shoots Sister-in-Law and Suicides.

Seattle, Wash., July 31.—Jesse Fifer, a gripman, killed his eight year old daughter, Hazel, and Mrs. Dennis Nihoul, a confinement patient; fatally wounded his wife, Mrs. L. Fifer, and seriously wounded Mrs. Ethel Warren, his sister-in-law, in a private maternity hospital here. He then turned the revolver upon himself and committed suicide.

Fifer and wife had been separated and she lived at a hospital. Although forbidden to go near the house, he made his way into the place through the basement. After finding his wife seated in a front room at that place, he started to shooting. The lights went out after the first shot and he had to light matches to see his victims to shoot at. His daughter and Mrs. Nihoul he drove into the street, where he shot them.

INVADED BY STRIKERS.

One District of France in a State of Panic.

Vigneux, France, July 31.—Vigneux was invaded by several thousand strikers from Paris carrying red flags and singing Socialist songs. While the squadron of cavalry was passing through the streets the crowds stoned the soldiers and four shots were fired at them. Fortunately no one was hit. The cavalrymen, using the flats of their sabers, charged and dispersed a crowd armed with stones that had assembled on the railroad tracks. Several of the manifestants were injured.

The situation grew worse after the clash at the railroad tracks. The strikers took possession of a building in process of construction and threw blocks of stone at the heads of the troopers, several of whom were wounded. The soldiers fired, and two strikers were seriously injured. Later the strikers erected barricades. Additional troops had been ordered in. All the stores of Vigneux are closed, and the district is in a state of panic. The strikers, from the housetops, threw a shower of stones at the soldiers as the barricades were charged and captured.

Much Powder Explodes.

Huntington, W. V., July 31.—At the mining town of Stansford, Raleigh county, 100 kegs of powder in a powder house exploded. Nearly every building in the town was wrecked and several people seriously hurt, the worst injured being Postmaster Munroe. Several persons were blown out of houses. The damage aggregates $200,000.

Two Run Down and Killed.

Philadelphia, July 31.—Driving a big touring car across the Reading railway tracks on Hunting Park avenue in the northern section of the city, in front of an express train, Charles Humphreys, chief clerk in the bureau of police, and Harry Bromley, a prominent dealer in upholsterers' materials, were run down by a train and instantly killed.

Zone to Be Established.

San Diego, Cal., July 31.—Forest Supervisor Marshall received official notice from Washington that President Roosevelt had established a zone sixty feet wide along the Mexican border, the land of which had been withdrawn from settlement. The purpose of this action is to render it more difficult to smuggle Asiatics over the line into California.

Sultan to Change Title.

Constantinople, July 31.—The sultan will change title to emperor of the Moslems.

CHAFIN'S CAMPAIGN.

Prohibition Candidate Has Decidedly Novel Plan.

Chicago, July 31.—A unique campaign, in which voters, sympathizers and all others who wish to listen to orators will have to pay 25 cents each for the privilege was announced by the Prohibition national committee as the basis of the party's activities from now until November. The innovation was devised by Eugene W.

EUGENE W. CHAFIN.

Chafin, Prohibition candidate for president. The members of the national committee are jubilant over the device, seeing in it prospects of a campaign "barrel" which will never be empty unless the public does not go to the meetings. This contingency, in the opinion of the committees, has been provided for ably.

Bomb Throwers at Work.

Newark, N. J., July 31.—Bomb throwers attempted to wreck the banking house of Salvatore D. Auria.

They did not succeed, but managed to blow up the big stone stoop leading to the bank. The explosion also blew out the plate glass windows of the saloon of Dominik Dillone in the basement beneath it.

There was a panic among the five clerks in the bank two of whom were women.

The explosion was heard three blocks away at a police station and the reserves ran out. They learned that two men had been seen to throw something with a light on the end of it under the bank steps a few minutes before the explosion occurred. Citizens who saw it believed it was a cigar, but the police are satisfied it was a bomb with a fuse burning. Auria, the banker and his brother-in-law, Suvannre, who lives in the adjoining house, have recently been receiving threatened black hand letters and have called the attention of the police to it. It is thought the attempt to wreck the bank is the outcome of their refusal to meet the demands of the blackmailers.

BESIDE BELOVED.

Governor Lanham's Body Interred by One He Loved So Dearly.

Weatherford, Tex., July 31.—The funeral of former Governor Lanham was held with simple but impressive ceremonies, with all members of the family present. Governor Campbell was detained at Austin because of illness, but Senator Culberson was present. Tom Green camp of United Confederate Veterans attended in a body. A great number of persons from other cities attended. The remains were laid beside those of Mrs. Lanham.

Governor Little in Sanitarium.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 31.—Governor Little of Arkansas, has been placed in a sanitarium here. He has been suffering from a nervous breakdown, which has developed into almost acute melancholia. His condition is not encouraging.

TWO MEN SWING.

Both Confess on Scaffold They Did Other Murders.

San Francisco, July 31.—John Seimsen and Louis Dabner were executed at San Quentin prison. They committed a series of crimes at San Francisco soon after the earthquake and the fire, and from the weapon they frequently used became known as "gaspipe thugs." They were executed for the murder of M. Murakata, a Japanese banker, but according to their own confession they were guilty of two other murders and several assaults and robberies.

DOG DELUGED.

Country Scoured by Boys and Picture Showman Does Well.

New York, July 31.—Tarrytown, like every other town, has more dogs than is good for it. The problem of getting rid of them has been a serious one for Poundmaster William Martin and as the dogs have not disappeared as fast as the people think they should, he called some small boys to help him. To this end he had advertised in the Tarrytown News as follows:

Dogs Wanted—To any boy who will bring me a dog I will give him six tickets for the moving picture show that will give him an opportunity to enjoy himself every night in the week. WILLIAM MARTIN, Poundmaster. Martin gets $1.25 from the village for each dog he kills, and as the tickets only cost 25 cents, he expects to make $25 a day. The boys are now scouring the village for dogs and they say when the supply in Tarrytown runs out they will go to other villages and bring them in.

The moving picture show is also reaping a harvest, as the small boys are filling the hall nightly.

Insurance on Taft.

New York, July 31.—Gossip among insurance men has it that a stock exchange house has taken out a policy on the life of W. H. Taft for $100,000. In the Roosevelt-Parker campaign a Republican who had bet on the candidate of his own party and figured that he could not lose except in the death of the Republican nominee, took out a policy on the life of Mr. Roosevelt, running to election day. The policy on Mr. Taft's life spoken of is the first case since the campaign of 1904 in which a Lloyd's policy has been taken out on the life of a public man here. The rumor said that the premium charged by Lloyd for the Taft insurance was 5 per cent.

Strictly Non-Partisan.

Lincoln, July 31.—The ceremonies attending the notification of Hon. W. J. Bryan of his nomination for the presidency will be strictly non-partisan. This decision was arrived at after a conference between Mayor Brown, National Committeeman Hall, Governor Sheldon and a committee of citizens of Lincoln. It has been decided there will be no parade of marching clubs. Invitations will be extended to the state and city officers of Nebraska and adjoining states and citizens generally to attend the notification.

Shipped to Murphy.

Savannah, Ga., July 31.—The first bale of "factors cotton," or that received in the ordinary course of business for this season, has been shipped to Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, New York. The attached placard announces that it is the first bale and concluded: "As surely as cotton is king, Bryan will be elected president."

The bale is to be auctioned off in Tammany Hall and the proceeds will be devoted to the Democratic campaign fund.

Officers Capture Horsethieves.

Denison, July 31.—Officers are here from Oklahoma and border counties in Texas in pursuit of horsethieves. Five were captured in this city and officers are in pursuit of the rest of the gang. They have been operating for a long period. It is considered the most important capture in many years. Operations extended all over this state and Oklahoma.

Sixty Bombs Located.

El Paso, July 31.—Deputy United States Marshal Hillebrand located sixty bombs three miles northwest of El Paso, where it is believed Mexican revolutionists had hidden them. A secret officer from San Antonio traced bombs from Ysleta, below El Paso, to the place where they were found.

Doc Williams Confesses.

San Antonio, July 31.—Doc Williams, convicted of the murder of a white man, Thomas J. Turner, was hanged. He made a complete confession on the gallows. Owing to his broken leg he was carried to the scaffold in a chair.

Lightning Kills Cow.

Terrell, Tex., July 31.—A furious thunder storm wrecked the home of Dock Turner, three miles south of town, and lightning killed a fine cow belonging to C. C. Phillips, in the same neighborhood.

Love Recovers.

Austin, July 31.—Commissioner Love has recovered from his illness.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

BRYAN, TEXAS, AUGUST 1, 1908.

Everybody agrees that State-wide prosperity is better than the local option kind.

The steam roller at Chicago pressed all the enthusiasm out of the Taft campaign.

Bryan will make no "whirlwind campaign." He has learned wisdom by experience.

John Temple Graves is an ideal tail for the Hearst party ticket; his boss can wag him so easily.

A move to prohibit street corner political discussions. Another blow aimed at freedom of speech.

An airship inventor has arrived in Dallas with the object of promoting an airship factory in that city.

Nobody objects to the multiplication of dry goods houses, but some people think there are too many wet goods houses.

Good roads and crop diversifications are always timely topics for discussion, while politics is in order semi-occasionally.

Wiley Imboden's name was not mentioned as one of the 350 members of the Davidson reception committee at Austin yesterday.

Hopkins county failed to land its favorite son in the governor's chair, but it has a consolation prize in a bumper cotton crop.

The Turks are not a talkative people, but nevertheless it will be a wonder if their parliament does not waste time in useless palaver.

Left declined the gift of an elephant, but Bryan has accepted an educated mule presented to him as a memento by Minnesota admirers.

There is talk of putting out a Republican against Attorney General Benson. In that case, what will the Houston Post and the Austin Statesman do?

There were probably more close votes in the late primary than ever before. Several ties are reported, and small majorities or plural-ities are numerous.

Several ties indicated the position of the Eagle before the primary, and that it was unwise to have a State-wide program at a general election.

Not Harry Cornish.

New York, July 29.—That the slain body of the man found floating in the tide off Gravesend Beach last Sunday is that of Harry Cornish, one of the central figures in the Adams murder case a few years ago, is the opinion of a man who was almost in deadly contact with Cornish at that time. He is Charley Crane, who was employed as a private detective to watch some of the Molinoux juryman while the trial was in progress, and who now holds a concession in a Coney Island amusement resort.

Although the body of the murdered man was believed to be Harry Cornish, the identification was subsequently disproved. Cornish called up newspapers and asked that the report of his death be corrected.

ALLEN ACADEMY IMPROVEMENTS

Out-door Gymnasium, New Light Plant and Thorough Renovation to Be Had.

Extensive improvements, now in course, and to be started immediately will tend greatly to improve the accommodations, enhance the attractive appearance, and facilitate and forward the instruction of the students of the Allen Academy for boys, one of the prominent schools of Bryan and this section. The dormitories are being repainted throughout; an outdoor gymnasium, fully equipped with all of the modern means of physical development and athletic training, is being erected, the bath houses are being thoroughly overhauled and renovated; a gasoline light plant, adequate to furnish lights for the entire school will be installed and the campus and all college property will be enclosed with an ornamental fence. Aside from the auspicious opening which these advantages will naturally give the academy, a large number of applications for entrance already received at this early date point to a matriculation for the coming term that will probably eclipse previous years.

The school shows the past several rapid growth during the past several years, and that it is rapidly gaining a prominent position among the schools for young men over the state is decidedly manifest. The 1908-1909 term will open on September 9th.

ANOTHER GLASS FRONT.

When he completes the new Wilson & Darden building the latter part of next week, Contractor H. T. Lewis will at once begin the work of remodeling the front of the house at modeling occupied by that firm and to present occupied by the new firm of Brandon & Lawrence. A hand-firm of Brandon & Lawrence, similar in design to that of the former establishment, will be put in and the interior of the house thoroughly renovated and made neat and attractive.

NOW, LISTEN!

We will put our machine in your house for a reasonable length of time on trial. You can investigate as to our honesty and sincerity of the Singer or Wheeler & Wilson machines. And as to the superiority of the Singer or Wheeler & Wilson machines, it is an undisputed fact that they are the leaders the world over. Singer Sewing Machine Company. T. A. Satterwhite, Salesman. CHRISTIAN WORKERS' CONFERENCE.

East Northfield, Mass., July 31.—The General Conference for Christian Workers, the largest and most important of the summer assemblies established by the late Dwight L. Moody at this place, began its twenty-sixth annual meeting today and will continue in session until August 16. It is expected that fully 5,000 people will attend this year's conference, many of them coming from distant parts of the country.

The program for the gathering contains many interesting features. Foremost among the speakers to be heard are Rev. J. Stuart Holden, Vicar of St. Paul's Chapel, London; Rev. Len G. Broughton, D. D., of Atlanta; Rev. C. A. T. Janvief, of Philadelphia; Rev. W. R. Macleod, of Edinburgh; Rev. Curtis Lee Laws, of Brooklyn, and Dr. W. L. Watkinson of London, the dean of the Methodist denomination in England.

ATTENTION, MEMBERS.

All members of the First Presbyterian church are earnestly requested to be present at the morning service on next Sunday, August 2nd, as the congregation will then proceed to elect and call a pastor. It is therefore of the greatest importance that all members of the church should be present. J. F. MITCHELL, Clerk of Session.

An Opium Farm.

Not far from Macao, at the mouth of the Canton river, China, is an opium "farm." Standing in a courtyard is the great wooden building devoted to opium manufactures, and in its vestibules are heaps of brown balls, not unlike coconuts. Two coolies, seated, cut them open and remove the black, jamlike substance they contain—the compressed poppy. The outer covering is a thick layer of dried leaves. Inside the building the whole place is full of smoke, arising from a hundred charcoal fires in open earthenware "chattis," placed in a row around the walls. Over each fire rests a shallow brass pan in which bubbles a mixture of poppy and water. This mixture is strained through paper and passes on to be more carefully boiled in the next room, where the process is exactly similar. From there it goes to another room, where the sirup is reduced to the consistency of treacle over slow fires. In another building the opium is packed in tiny cans and placed in cases and sealed with the government seal.

A Banker's Generosity.

One day Humboldt was dining with Mendelssohn, the banker, and, an unusual thing for him, was very silent. His host, remarking it, observed to Humboldt that he was sure he must be ill.

"No," said Humboldt, "but I am in great trouble. Only ten minutes before leaving my apartment to come here I received from my landlord a note informing me that he had sold the house in which I reside and that I must move. The very thought drives me to despair. I really cannot bear to move again."

Mendelssohn gradually led Humboldt into conversation, during which he found time to write a note and receive an answer to it. He then took Humboldt aside and said: "By this note I learn that I am now the owner of the house in which you reside. The condition, however, upon which I have become its possessor is that you continue to occupy your apartment in it as long as you live."

Wanted a Bargain.

One day a small Cincinnati boy came to a halt before a sign over a desk in the office of the express company. It gave the rate for money orders, and after studying it for a few minutes he walked up to the cashier and said boldly:

"I want a money order."

"How large a one, my boy?" the clerk inquired benignantly.

"Well, let's see," pondered the little fellow. "The rate for a ten dollar order is 8 cents, isn't it?"

"Yes; that's right."

"Well, I want a drum and pair of roller skates and a new straw hat and some candy. Ten dollars will be enough."

Then he fished through his pockets and triumphantly placed a nickel and three coppers before the astonished clerk. It took ten minutes to convince the youngster that nothing less than $10.08 could buy a money order for $10.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Too Much of a Good Thing.

George Marshall, a philanthropist who always kept a sharp lookout never to be wasteful, decided to go for a week's camping, taking as his guests some ragged street urchins. One morning he used the bits of meat left from the evening before and made hash for breakfast. There was some left over, which he concluded to reheat and serve again at noon.

"Johnnie, will you have some hash?" he asked one lad.

"Bet your life," replied the lad, who was constitutionally hungry.

"Peter, pass your plate for some hash"—to another freckled nosed lad.

"Not if I know it," was the unexpected reply.

"I thought you liked hash from the way you ate it this morning," replied Mr. Marshall.

"I did like it for breakfast," said the lad, "but none of yer review of reviews for me for dinner."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Arrested at Lookout Inn.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 29.—W. Perby Love, cashier of the First National bank of Greensboro, Ala., was arrested at Lookout Inn by Deputy Marshal Evanson on telegrams from the United States district attorney at Mobile, charging him with embezzlement. Love was brought to the city and placed in the county jail. Love bears a partially healed knife wound on his throat, which, telegrams from Mobile say, was caused by an attempt at self-destruction last Friday.

Costly Jar of the Subway.

The tuppenny tube, London's subway, once set fire to a house in a manner so extraordinary as to merit attention. In a mansion beneath which runs the subterranean railway one of the bedroom fireplaces was fitted with a blower—a sheet of iron inside the grate which can be raised or lowered to regulate the draft. The blower rested on a series of iron notches. One afternoon a servant kindled a fire in the grate and when it was well alight raised the blower, so that the coal would burn but slowly, and so left it while she went downstairs. Presently, deep in the clay beneath the foundations of the house, a train rushed along. The vibrations from its passing were sufficient to jar the blower from the notches on which the servant had left it. It dropped down. The draft increased; the fire raged madly. The flames were enough to set the chimney on fire, burning soot set the water tank on the roof alight, and there resulted a considerable conflagration.—Pittsburg Post.
